Don't Be a Deserter

Be devoted to one another in love.

Romans 12:10a

A soldier leaving his comrades behind in the heat of battle... A father abandoning his wife and children... These are the images that come to mind when we hear the word "deserter." Desertion is more than just shirking a task or responsibility. It is failing to be there for people when they need us most.

In 2 Timothy 1:15-18, the apostle Paul tells of his personal experience of abandonment by everyone in the province of Asia. He even gives the names of two in particular whose desertion especially surprised and disappointed him.

What caused these people to turn their backs on Paul? The reason is implied in his description of the one friend who remained faithful. Onesiphorus was not ashamed of Paul's imprisonment. Even when Paul's circumstances became complicated and awkward, Onesiphorus continued to visit Paul often, consistently refreshing his spirit, even when faced with significant obstacles. Paul expresses his deep gratitude by praying for God's mercy on Onesiphorus and his family.

Who in your world is dealing with a difficult situation right now? Perhaps that person is going through a painful divorce, battling an extended illness, or grieving the loss of someone close. Don't be a deserter. Respond today with a special word or gesture of encouragement. Do whatever it takes to be there for that person. Your choice, to either turn your back or reach out in love, could make an eternal difference in someone's life.
