Prayer Requests:

Thanks from Cambodia

The Bible English Study Training (BEST) Center in Phnom Penh, Cambodia is currently “home” for 18 dorm students who attend universities in that city. In return for housing, meals, and tuition assistance, they agree to help with the daily chores at the Center and complete a structured daily Bible study program during their time there.

Mission of the Month

Julie Broyles, our mission partner in Cambodia and director of the BEST Center, recently sent the following note of thanks to our church family.

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I want to express my deepest appreciation for all your love and support, your encouragement and prayers. You have been a wonderful family to me. I am grateful for the missions committee and all their volunteer time (which is a lot) to oversee the Lord's work here in Cambodia.

I pray that every penny you have given and everything done here is in step with our Lord's will. If it weren't for you and your consistent giving and oversight, this work and those studying God's Word here daily, would not be taking place.

I ask for your continued perseverance in the spreading of the Gospel in Cambodia, as the work grows. Thank you for your love!

May the Granbury family be blessed and grow in your own faith and outreach to others.

With Christ's love, Julie Broyles

May we continue to remember this effective mission effort in our daily prayers.
