Church Health Assessment – We would like to thank the 270 members who participated in the Church Health Assessment Survey. The Elders, Deacons, and Ministers were invited to spend the morning with Dr. Carson Reed Saturday a week ago to better understand what the survey says about the Granbury Church of Christ. Dr. Reed followed up by worshipping with us last Sunday morning. All who attended the Saturday session were very impressed with the report and the work of the Siburt Institute.

On May 15, the Elders, Deacons, and Ministers will meet for a roundtable discussion on what was heard. Soon after, a report will be presented to all of the congregation.

Once again, thank you to all those who participated. Your input is extremely valuable and will be used to glorify God in Granbury.

You're invited to the dedication of the addition to the Mabee Health Education and Services Center at Foster's Home at 2:00pm on Saturday, June 2. Included in the dedication will be the Gene & Charmaine Boone Administrative Suite (former GCOC members – Gene served as an elder and Charmaine as a church secretary). Come and celebrate the completion of the first major project of their Vision 2020 capital campaign.

Greater Honor Given

Today has been designated by our nation as a time to honor our mothers. This morning, as we remember our own mothers and honor our families with new babies born in the past year, let's also think about another group of moms whose overwhelming love and dedication to children is often overlooked.

Foster's Home Moms

Late last fall, the GCOC Neighbors class made the decision to use a portion of their weekly class donation to support special projects for Foster's Home for Children in Stephenville. In thinking about the house mothers' daily task of cooking for a houseful of children, it was suggested that the class buy an Instant Pot (a popular kitchen tool which minimizes cooking time) for each of the twelve residential homes. They collected money for several months, purchased and gift-wrapped the pots, and then traveled to Stephenville as a group a couple of weeks ago to present the gifts to these special moms who pour heart and soul into caring for children who have come from heart-wrenching backgrounds of abuse.

The moms were surprised and extremely grateful, quickly making plans to share recipes and ideas about how they could use the pots to bless others. As the class members toured some of the facilities on the campus, they became aware of further ways they could help in the future.

In 1 Corinthians 12:24, the apostle Paul says that in the body of Christ, God has given greater honor to those who lack it. May we continue to look for opportunities to join Him in honoring those who quietly and consistently serve others in the background.
