WBS: Sharing Your Faith

Would you like to be able to share your faith with others, but the thought of knocking on a stranger's door or teaching someone face-to-face leaves you in a cold sweat? Then it could be that World Bible School is just for you!

WBS provides the structure and materials for ordinary Christians to share their faith with others through interactive correspondence by email or postal mail. Rather than just give money for someone else to teach the gospel, WBS enables you to be an integral part of the mission process yourself. You can experience firsthand the thrill of students requesting baptism after coming to a knowledge of the truth through their study of the Bible under your guidance. They are then connected to Christians near them who can fulfill their request and welcome them into the family of God.

Why not join the ranks of our WBS teachers right here at GCOC? To volunteer, contact Bob McMillan, the deacon who coordinates our WBS ministry. Let God use you to make an eternal difference in someone's life!

Jan Knox
