Prayer Requests:

A Father's Day Blessing

We honor you in your God-given duty.
May you walk free from the lies of the world
That say a father is not important.

For we say that you are important.
You are to be a light in darkness,
A living example of God Himself.

We bless you to be strong and courageous,
To wear the full armor of God,
To resist the devil, and to stand.
Stand firm for your wives and children;
Stand firm for the body of Christ.

We bless you to go out and do great deeds for the kingdom of God,
To become oaks of righteousness,
To rise to the fullness of Christ,
And to run hard the race that has been marked for you.

We claim this blessing for you,
That you would be counted righteous in this life,
That by the grace of God you would be blameless,
And that in so doing your children would be blessed.

What you do in life echoes in eternity.
O God bless these men,
And may their echoes be loud and full and pleasing in Your sight throughout all ages.
