Announcements

First Sunday Welcome Lunch – The Ambassadors, Journey and Climbers classes invite visitors and new members who have placed membership since November 2014 to be their guests for lunch in the Dining Hall of the Fellowship Center today immediately following the 10:45 worship service. Dino and Mata Tzanetos, our mission partners in Greece, plan to attend the luncheon, so anyone who would like an opportunity to visit with them is also invited to come.

Thank you to the members of the Challengers class for preparing food and feeding the workers at Habitat for Humanity on Saturday, October 24. s/

Youth News

The family work day scheduled for last Sunday has been rescheduled for today. Van departs from the church building at 2:30pm, and will return around 6:30pm. Be sure to wear your work clothes. Contact Michael if you have questions.

Encounter LE - On November 20-22, the high school students are invited to Encounter LE at LCU in Lubbock. You can sign up at www.lcucamps.com. Make sure you register under Granbury Church of Christ. The cost for this event will be $25 per teen (for hotel rooms). More information to come.

November Focus: Praying for the Lost

Next Sunday, November 8, we will have an opportunity to culminate our October focus of Supporting Our Missionaries by giving to GCOC's annual Harvest Missions Fund. Every dollar of your contribution will be used in some way to help our mission partners proclaim the gospel of Christ around the world. So prayerfully consider what you will give.

As we enter a new month today, the focus of the Living Our Mission daily devotional readings moves from our missionaries to the people they (and we) are trying to reach in Extending the Kingdom. Reaching the lost begins with praying for the lost. Why? First, there is power in prayer. James 5:16 states that "the prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective," and in the following verses, James gives an example of a person "just like us" whose prayer changed the course of events in the world. He then encourages us to turn sinners back to God through that same power.

Second, prayer helps us be more alert to opportunities for God to use us in answering those prayers. Colossians 4:2-6 reminds us to devote ourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful and making the most of every opportunity in our interactions with those outside of Christ.

Sometimes we don't know what to ask for in praying for the lost. November's daily readings will give us specific things to focus on as we pray. So beginning today, let's devote ourselves to Praying for the Lost. Ask the Lord to put circumstances and people in their path that will draw them closer to Him. Who knows, He may answer that prayer by placing you in their lives!

Faithful in All Circumstances

Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus (2 Timothy 2:3). Nobody understands what this looks like more than Dino and Mata Tzanetos, our mission partners in Athens, Greece. Day after day, month after month, year after year, these faithful servants continue to preach, teach, baptize, and serve the people of a nation in severe, ongoing economic crisis.

Dino and Mata are here today and will share more about their work in the worship assemblies this morning. You can also visit with them at the First Sunday Welcome Lunch immediately following the 10:45 service today in the Fellowship Center. Let's come alongside them and endure their hardship with them by providing physical, emotional, and spiritual refreshment during their stay here and beyond.
