Sing to the Lord

*Sing to the Lord, praise his name;
proclaim his salvation day after day.*
Psalm 96:2

Have you ever wondered why God gave us the ability to sing? He gave us feet for walking, hands for serving, eyes for seeing, and ears for hearing. But when He gave us voices for talking, He added the extra bonus of singing. Why?

Nothing stirs our souls or lifts our spirits quite like singing. It is the avenue by which we can express our deepest emotions. When we are lonely or afraid, we can plead Be With Me, Lord. When we are overwhelmed with grief, we can find comfort in knowing there are No Tears in Heaven. When we are convicted of our sin, we can approach Him On Bended Knee and ask for the strength to change. When we are in awe of His power and majesty, we can proclaim to the world How Great Is Our God.

Singing has always been a natural part of worship to God through the ages. It was so important to the Jewish exiles returning from Babylonian captivity that they brought along 200 singers on the journey home to Jerusalem for the purpose of singing praise to the Lord as they celebrated each step of rebuilding the temple, from laying the foundation to dedicating the finished structure.

So in whatever circumstance you find yourself today, whether in the pit or on top of the mountain, respond with a song to the Lord. You will be blessed and encouraged.
