In God We Trust

Have you ever noticed the phrase, "In God We Trust" printed on American currency? It almost seems ironic because if anything in the world, and especially in this country, competes with God for our trust and attention, it is money or the things that money can buy.

In fact, wealth and material possessions tend to divert our focus away from spiritual things. We lose our anticipation for eternity when we concentrate too much on making this present life the ultimate in comfort and ease. In 1 Timothy 6:6-10, Paul urges us to renew our focus on the spiritual by pursuing godliness with contentment rather than spending our time and energy chasing after riches.

So what is the right balance? Perhaps the following words from Proverbs 30:7-9 (NLT) should become a part of our daily prayers:

O God...give me neither poverty nor riches!

Give me just enough to satisfy my needs.

For if I grow rich, I may deny you and say, "Who is the Lord?"

And if I am too poor, I may steal and thus insult God's holy name.

Amen!

Jan Knox
