Ray Vander Laan Seminar: Why Come?

Some of you may be wondering, "Why all the excitement about Ray Vander Laan coming? Why should I spend $20 and a whole weekend to come hear him speak?"

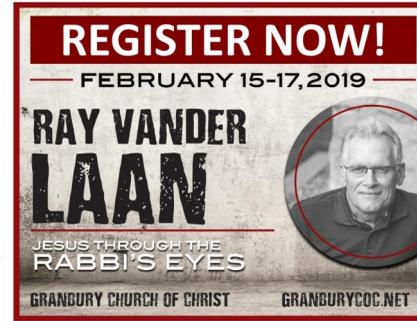

I was first introduced to Ray Vander Laan about 12 years ago when a friend loaned me a set of his That the World May Know videos because she thought I would enjoy them.

When I took the time to watch the first one, I was intrigued. He was presenting material on Bible time background, culture, and customs that I had never heard before. His information added depth and understanding to the biblical stories I had heard all my life. It was like watching a television show in color for the first time after years of seeing it in black and white.

I have never attended one of his seminars but am told that he is a very passionate and engaging speaker with a unique ability to draw in his audience. The time flies by, and people are left wanting more.

A ticket for the entire weekend is less expensive and more beneficial in the long-term than a show at Granbury Live or the Opera House. If your schedule won't allow you to be there the whole time, just come for what you can. Some is better than none.

Go to www.granburycoc.net to view a schedule and register. It just might be the best $20 investment you'll make this year!
