Volunteer Needed!

Texans for Christ – the campus ministry at Tarleton State University sponsored by churches of Christ – offers a free lunch at their Christian Campus Center every Tuesday during the school year. Area churches take turns furnishing the food for this longstanding ministry, including Granbury Church of Christ. For 18 years, Robbie Francis has served as the coordinator for GCOC's portion of this ministry, which involves organizing a group of volunteers to provide one meal each semester. Robbie has resigned from the coordinator's role, effective immediately, and has offered to help with the transition to a new coordinator. Please contact Robbie if you would be interested in serving as the coordinator for this ministry.

Carter BloodCare will be receiving donors in the Fellowship Center on Sunday, February 24, from 8:30am – 12:30pm.

Company’s Comin’

Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 1 Peter 4:9

The Ray Vander Laan seminar is almost here – next Friday through Sunday. Tickets for the event have sold out, which means we’ll have a full house all weekend and on Sunday, in particular. Here are a few things we request of you next Sunday as members of the hosting church.

- Parking – Please park in the south parking lot near the Fellowship Center, or better yet, in outlying areas such as the Christian Service Center or Pecan Valley MHMR across Pirate Dr. That will leave the spaces nearer to the Worship Center for our guests.
- I.D.s – New permanent nametags for all of our members will be available on a table in the Dining Hall, beginning next weekend. Please stop by, pick up your tag, and wear it so that our guests can identify you as a GCOC member, in case they need any assistance.
- Hospitality – For next weekend only, “The Gathering Place” for coffee, tea, and refreshments will be in the Teen Center.
- Seating – We expect our Sunday attendance to exceed the capacity of the Worship Center, so please consider sitting in the overflow area that will be set up in the Fellowship Center. The combined Bible class and the worship service will be streamed live to that area. Those remaining in the Worship Center are asked to move in and fill the middle of the sections, leaving the seats nearest the aisles for guests and those who arrive later.

May each of us humbly demonstrate to those around us what Christian service and hospitality are all about.
