Prayer Requests:

For His Eyes Only

Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:1

Jesus knows people. He understands how we think and the motives behind our actions because after all, He had a part in creating us. He knows that wanting credit for what we do is basic to human nature. We want people to like us and think well of us. But with that desire comes the temptation to serve and do what is good to be noticed by others.

As we go about our daily lives in our families, community, and church, what is our mindset? Are we always conscious of who is around that might be noticing what we are doing? Or are we focused on the need or activity at hand, asking what God wants us to do in this situation? As a friend once told me, everything we do should be done for an audience of One. Our Father’s opinion of us is the only one that matters, so what we do should be for His eyes only. If we focus on doing what pleases Him, then we will receive the only reward we need.
