And Now Reaching America

He was born in Baghdad, Iraq to a traditional Muslim family, served in the Iraq Republican Guard, found a Bible, read it in secret, and became a Christian – in Iraq.

Then he came to America, studied at the Sunset International Bible Institute in Lubbock Texas, and now has a successful ministry to the largest Muslim community in the U.S. in Dearborn, Michigan... two blocks from the most radical mosque in the Western Hemisphere.

Wissam Al-Aethawi is coming to Texas next month to share his story as the featured guest at the annual dinners for SIBI in the DFW area.

August 29 – Dallas, TX
InterContinental Hotel – 6:30pm

August 30 – Fort Worth, TX
Hilton Hotel Downtown – 6:30pm

If you plan to attend, please RSVP at www.sibi.cc/dfw or 817-995-3328.

All or Nothing

"I will follow you wherever you go." These words of the man that Jesus met on the road, recorded in Luke 9:57, express the initial sentiments of many. After all, by this point in Jesus' ministry, the people have seen Him heal lepers, paralytics, and the blind, deaf, and demon-possessed. They have witnessed Him raising the dead and feeding thousands with only a handful of food. Jesus obviously has unlimited power and resources at His disposal. Who wouldn't want to follow Him?

In His response to the man, Jesus makes it clear that following Him is not about receiving endless benefits in life. There is a cost involved in discipleship – a great cost, in fact. Followers must be prepared to give up material comforts and adjust their relational priorities. He expects our total focus and attention.

Lukewarm, half-hearted devotion is not enough. Serving Him only when it's convenient won't cut it. Acknowledging His Lordship only in selected areas of our lives or only when we are around particular people is unacceptable. Following Jesus is an "all or nothing" proposition.

Are you ready to give up everything to follow Jesus?

Jan Knox

Wednesday Nights This Summer

Wednesday evenings this summer are off to a great start! Wednesday Summer Praise begins at 6:30 pm with everyone – adults, teens, and children – coming together in the Fellowship Center for a time to worship the Lord and share stories of faith.

Then following the devotional service, stay for Sweet Summer Fellowship as we build friendship ties and enjoy desserts in the Parlor and Fellowship Center. Throughout the summer, our Sunday classes will provide sweets for us to share together as we visit with old and new friends. This week, July 13, is Death by Chocolate. Come join us as we praise God and fellowship with one another!
