Intergenerational Class Mixing

Special thanks goes to all those in the Challengers, Journey/Ambassadors, Neighbors/Encouragers, and Victory classes who volunteered to participate in the intergenerational pilot experiment that was announced in the assemblies last Sunday. The goal of this program is to promote unity and encourage the development of relationships among the different generations of this church by assigning volunteers from participating classes to attend another class for one quarter. Those who volunteered will receive their class assignments for the fall quarter in the next few weeks. Please be praying in the coming weeks and months for God's blessing on this effort.

First Grade Bibles

One of the highlights of our Children's Ministry is the privilege of presenting new first graders with their very own Bible on the first Sunday before school starts, which is August 23 this year. If you have a child about to start the first grade this year and would like to have a Bible presented to him or her, please contact the church office this week at (817) 573-2613, or email Kevin Brown at kbrown@granburycoc.net.

Dynamic Evangelism!

Our firm decision is to work from this focused center: One man died for everyone (2 Corinthians 5:14, The Message). I heard a really great sermon this last Lord's Day. The title of that sermon was Intimate Enough to Feel the Pain. I went away from the assembly feeling like our collective toes had been stepped on pretty hard.
Especially was this true when John closed that part on really serving like the New Testament Church with the thought that perhaps we are just "Into Ourselves" a little too much to really serve others. I'm not quite sure he intended it that way; but that one, along with the other four suggestions (driven by convenience, controlled by selfish ambition, unnerved by stressful circumstances, and consumed by desires) really hit us where we seem to live...

In response to John's challenge, I invite you to join me in a program this fall entitled Dynamic Evangelism! Ask me about it or look forward to September when we plan to get it started.

Thanks John, for a great lesson!
